KIRGIZIA -- Sovetskaya Kirgiziya, No 27, 11 Feb 49

The Fifth Congress of the KP(b) Kirgizia opened in Frunze on 10 February. N. S. Bogolyubov, secretary of the TsK KP(b) Kirgizia, was the main speaker.

Bogolyubov stated that as of 1 January 1949, there were 45,886 Communists, including 36,457 members of the VKP(b) and 9,429 candidates for membership, in the Kirgiz SSR. On 1 March 1940, there were 15,775 Communists, including 7,060 VKP(b) members and 8,715 candidates. The KP(b) Kirgizia had, therefore, increased 2.9 times between the two congresses. During this period, one oblast (Talas), five city, and 15 rayon Party organizations had been created to bring the present total to 6 oblast, 9 city, 62 rural rayon, and 3 city rayon party organizations of the KP(b) Kirgizia. The number of primary party organizations rose to 2,540, an increase of four times over 1940.
